been affected by Mulligan's experience, and taken this position on account of being able to procure wells of water inside his entrenchments. His force is 80,000 strong, besides 4,000 who are posted on the south side of the city.

The Express messenger on 1bn St. Joe Railroad states that reports were rife at Hamilton today that Gen. Sigel was yesterday storming Lexington. Oun report even states that Lexington has surrendered, but receives lit le credit.

Three of Col Smith's pickets at St. Joe were killed last night. They were stationed some miles out of town, and are supposed to have been shot by rebels attined to a foren known to be stationed about eleven miles southeast of St. Joe.

There ere fears of an attack on the city, but there was none up to the time the train left. Gen.
Prenties is now (nine o'clock) reported to be on a special train en route for this city.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 26, 1861.
Senate.—The Senate held no session in day.
House.—Prayer by Elder Wm. T. Moore, of the Christian Church.
The reading of the journal of yesterday was dispensed with.
A petition was presented by Mr. Shanklin, and appropriately referred.

Mr. Barnam offered the following resolutions,
vz:
WHEREAS, The President of the United States having (at the request of Congress) appointed this day of fasting, humiliation, and prayer, set apart to the people of this country by a ruthless enemy, and thus a part of our citizens desolate, and we being in impensible danger of civil war between our own people, it is become the representative of the people to be engaged in work therefore, viz—

[illegible]

Mr. BARNAM moved that the House take a recess until 3 o'clock. Adopted.

COAST—There is no danger to be apprehended from the announcement at this time that at least one expedition has sailed from Northern ports during the last few days, and is probably now on its way to the Northern coast. It is known that a number of steamers have lately left this port and that one or two regiments have mysteriously disappeared. We learn that the true object of

To what extent the squadron lying off Port-au-Prince, Haiti, is to be used in the case of a possible invasion of the island by the United States, I am not prepared to say at present. It is sufficient to state that the squadron is being kept ready for service.

For public servants were never more actively engaged than they have been of late, and that General Buller never acted more adroitly than on the occasion of his recent visit "to look after domestic affairs that required his immediate presence." The evolutions which he received on his way home were not designed as tributes to overweening vanity, but concealed a piece of genuine Yankee management, — a plan to show him the
